Gentlemen,

I thank you for your favor of August 10th, containing the returns, sorry you could not do anything with the coins.

As I bought in Egypt the whole find (having the first pick) I could make you very reasonable prices, if you take a lot.

I have now a most beautiful renaissance Medal in silver, best Nuremberg work, of Ludwig I. of Bavaria, of which I have made you a photo.

I hope this will be a desirable piece for your client. It costs Mks. 2000.— less 10%, best price.

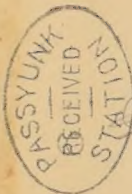

I am, Gentlemen,

My dear Mr. Chapman: Many thanks for your cable. I give here a small list of some extremely fine and very rare Greek coins, which might give you satisfaction. The collection which I offered you lately is of such high quality and unique preservation that I cannot decide myself to sell them separately. But I am sure your clients are only too happy to get them. If you should care also for some fine gold medietal and modern issues I could also give you a list, also if you care to have some more of fine class 100 and 50 Lib. of Syracuse.

I would ask you again, in case you care to meet with my propositions to let me have an advance of 15000 $ (fifteen thousand Dollars) cable transfer to my bank in Zürich: L. Ott & Co. Bahnhofstrasse, or directly to my above address. Hope you and all of you will, and am with best regards, yours very faithfully Dr. Jacob Hirsch

Dear Dr. Hirsch,

Mrs. Chapman has in her possession a Royal seal with bust of Lucius Verus carved on it. It is beautifully done on an ~~Amethyst~~ 1- $\frac{1}{4}$ inches in diameter and half inch thick. Mr. Chapman brought it back with him on one of his trips abroad and Mrs. Chapman wondered if you would tell her about what such an object would be worth. If you would like we will send a plaster cast of it.
